Japan's Carbon Neutrality commitment

Japan has set its 2030 GHG emission reduction target at 46 percent from its 2013 levels, an ambitious target which is aligned with the long-term goal of achieving net-zero by 2050. By defining bold objectives befitting a future growth strategy for the nation, Japan is resolved to take the lead in achieving global decarbonization and creating a green and sustainable society.

Approach to carbon neutrality

Carbon Neutrality in 2050 - mirroring Japan's climate commitment

FPT Japan's climate commitment

- (1) Medium-term target to 2025 will reduce carbon emissions: Scope 1 and 2 by 20% compared to 2021; and Scope 3 by 5% compared to 2021
- (2) The long-term goal to 2050 is Net zero as committed by Japan, as well as FPT Software's global efforts

Emission reduction strategies

Our strategy for carbon neutrality is to reduce our Scope 1, 2, and 3 emissions and offset the remaining emissions.

Respect for human rights

FPT Japan Human rights policy

For the FJP Group to achieve sustainable success, it is essential that we have an environment where the human rights of others are respected. Employees will adhere to the following principles and build relationships of mutual respect with other employees, business partners, and other parties outside the company.

Our company has established principles in the FPT Japan Group Business Conduct Code for all group employees, and clearly states the actions that employees should take.

Prohibition of discrimination

We prohibit acts that harm the dignity of individuals, such as discrimination, attack, and harassment based on nationality, age, gender, religion, creed, disability, or any other reason completely unrelated to the performance of work.

Respect for diversity

We respect the culture, customs, history, values, individuality, and diversity of countries and regions, and act with consideration for related parties.

Prevention of harassment

We strive to build a system to prevent human rights violations, including harassment, and in the event that they occur, we will promptly take corrective action and provide relief through appropriate internal and external procedures.

Social dialogue

We respect the freedom and equality of employees. All employees have the right to freedom of association and to express their opinions and voices.

Representatives of FPT Japan's employees are elected every 2 years through candidacy and fair elections, employees' voices are heard by the Safety and Health Committee, etc., and the company respects them to the utmost.

The collective labor agreement of FPT Japan is approved by the authorities and the regulations related to the rights of employees are agreed.

Every year, our company holds an online dialogue event called "Open Talk" where employees express their opinions. The dialogue holds in the form of an online live stream on our internal website, with the participation of our chairman, directors, deputy general managers, general managers, general managers/department heads, and all employees.

We also effectively operate a guideline and complaint/accusation process to resolve employee complaints and accusations.

In order to measure FPT Japan's response to employees from the perspective of working conditions and welfare benefits, we conduct an employee engagement survey every year, analyze the results, and take measures in each department, give them feedback.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

FJP Group carries out diversity and inclusion activities with the aim of creating a workplace environment where all employees can work comfortably and actively participate, regardless of gender, age, race, nationality, disability, sexual orientation, religion/beliefs, values, etc. We are promoting it.

We offer diversity, equity and inclusion awareness training as an annual training program for all managers and employees.

We prevent discrimination in career development and promotion processes. All stages of performance evaluation, advancement, and advancement opportunities are fair for everyone.

We always strive to create a safe, happy, sociable, equal and fair working environment for all of our employees.

Every year, we organize programs and benefits specifically for women, such as celebrating International Women's Day and Vietnam Women's Day. We also have a breastfeeding room exclusively for female employees.

In addition, we are working to create environments that are comfortable for people with disabilities to work at each of our business locations. We make the hallways and elevators in our office accessible to people in wheelchairs, actively accept interns from special needs schools, and improve the environment by incorporating opinions from people with disabilities and faculty and staff.

Information Management

We, FPT Japan, believe that our mission is to contribute to our society, and to meet expectations of the stakeholders, including our customers, employees, and their families, through management of the information security system for the provision of software development, integration, operation and maintenance services, application support services, information system consulting services and staffing services.

In our business activities, we utilize many information assets, including information from our customers, partners, and employees. Therefore, we understand that to protect these information assets from threats, as well as to meet the expectation of customers and all stakeholders, our utmost business priority is to strengthen the information security system.

We also have instructions to ensure that we are always ready to respond to information leakage and information theft incidents at FPT Japan.

We sign information security commitments with related parties and customers during transactions and information sharing.
